Early Childhood State Advisory Council
Quarterly Activities/ Project Description
Delaware Early Childhood Council has completed the development of the state's five year Strategic Plan. The draft will be released in October 2012. Draft will be reviewed for feedback from council members on the October 12th meeting. Following the initial release to the Council, the Plan will be shared with the broader early childhood community for review and comment. The state has embarked on a path towards the development of a data system for Early Childhood. The focus is to build an integrated early childhood cross-sector data system. The state P-20 Council has established the P-20 Early Childhood Data Subcommittee. The Subcommittee will be working with the P-20 Council, the Early Childhood Council, and the Interagency Resource Management Committee (IRMC). The Subcommittee will focus efforts towards identifying the readiness indicators and linking those indicators that will help answer the seven Essential Questions for Early Childhood that have been established by the IRMC. Baron Holmes and Phil Koshkin, who have led the efforts to build two of the best systems in the nation, will be in Delaware to discuss issues related to building a comprehensive data system, databases in their system, and analyzing data for policy and program support. The Council is working closely with the state's Race To The Top ? Early Learning Challenge Grant office, which is now called the	Activity Code 1 611110 Activity Code 2 Activity Code 3 Activity Code 4 Activity Code 5 Activity Code 6 Activity Code 7 Activity Code 8 Activity Code 9 Activity Code 10
